Compare the prices given in large numbers, i.e., the highest unit price of each vehicle.

The highest unit price of most taxis is between SEK 290 - 390

- Sweden does not regulate prices; they may vary greatly. It is the customer's responsibility to check prices beforehand.
- Check the price on the yellow label, which is usually on the rear door window, before entering the vehicle.
- The price on the yellow label is based on a 10 km, 15-minute journey.
- When taking a taxi at a taxi station, you do not need to take the first vehicle in line – you are free to select any taxi company.
- The price indicated on the taximeter is in Swedish kronor. Always ask for a taximeter receipt when paying for the journey.
